MOTIF

Bandel Church

The District Hugli is enriched with the rivers Hugli, Damodar, Darakeswar, Mundeswari, Saraswati, Kunti, Behula etc. It has inherited the name “Hugli” probably from “HOGLA”, a tall reed, which grows in abundance on the river banks and in the marshy low lands below them. But it is also stated that ‘Hugli’ is a very ancient place. In the Ain-i-Akbari written in 1596 A.D, Abul Fazl calls the place as “Hughli”. The District Hugli is enriched with its cultural heritage. The Portuguese, the Dutch, the French, the Dane, the English came to this District for business purpose. The river path was used for trade and commerce. The important monuments in this district are Bandel Basilica, Hugli Immambara, Armenian Church, Tower Clock, Bansberia Hanseswari Mandir etc. The great scholar William Carey came in this district and lived here for a long period. He enriched the Bengali language by printing books and publishing “Samachar Darpan” in Bengali. Asia’s largest type foundry was established at Serampore in the district of Hugli with the help of Panchanan Karmakar and his son-in-law Monohar and at the initiative of William Carey. This foundry was established, where type faces of different Indian, Asian and European languages began to be cast. Sri Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay, a famous Bengali writer also lived here at Debanandapur in this district, who expressed sorrows of the women folk in rural areas in his writings. Sri Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, edited the “BANDE MATARAM” song here which is known to every Indian. Raja Ram Mohan Roy lived in this district at Radhanagar, Khanakul under Arambagh Sub-division, who fought against Sati Daaho Pratha.

Among the monuments, the Bandel Church is famous throughout the World. Bandel appears to have been the port of Hugli at the time of Portuguese and Moghals. This is the only sign of Portuguese establishment in the district of Hugli. In front of the Church stands a “Ship’s Mast” which was presented by the Captain of a vessel which had encountered a storm in bay of Bengal, but rescued at the grace of “Virgin Mary”, the “Lady of Happy Voyage”, the centre of attraction in the Church. The present Church and Monastery are said to have been built in 1660 by Gomez-de-Soto having the key stone of the old Church bearing the date 1599 over the Eastern Gate. The Church has three altars, a small organ and several tomb stones. Bandel Church is the pride of Bengal, pride of Hugli.

FOREWORD

The District Census Handbook (DCHB) is an important publication of the Census Organization since 1951. It contains both Census and non Census data of urban and rural areas for each District. The Census data provide information on demographic and socio-economic characteristics of population at the lowest administrative unit i.e. of each Village and Town and ward of the District. The Primary Census Abstract (PCA) part of this publication contains Census data including data on household amenities collected during 1st.phase of the Census i.e. House Listing and Housing Census. The non Census data presented in the DCHB is in the form of Village Directory and Town Directory contain information on various infrastructure facilities available in the village and town viz; education, medical, drinking water, communication and transport, post and telegraph, electricity, banking, and other miscellaneous facilities. Later on, the Telegraph Services were closed by the Government of India on 15th. July, 2013. The data of DCHB are of considerable importance in the context of planning and development at the grass-root level.

2. In the 1961 Census, DCHB provided a descriptive account of the District, administrative statistics, Census tables and Village and Town Directory including Primary Census Abstract. This pattern was changed in 1971 Census and the DCHB was published in three parts: Part-A related to Village and Town Directory, Part-B to Village and Town PCA and Part-C comprised analytical report, administrative statistics, District Census tables and certain analytical tables based on PCA and amenity data in respect of Villages. The 1981 Census DCHB was published in two parts: Part-A contained Village and Town Directory and Part-B the PCA of Village and Town including the SCs and STs PCA up to Tahsil/Town levels. New features along with restructuring of the formats of Village and Town Directory were added. In Village Directory, all amenities except electricity were brought together and if any amenity was not available in the referent Village, the distance in broad ranges from the nearest place having such an amenity, was given.

3. The pattern of 1981 Census was followed by and large for the DCHB of 1991 Census except the format of PCA. It was restructured. Nine-fold industrial classification of main workers was given against the four-fold industrial classification presented in the 1981 Census. In addition, sex wise population in 0-6 age group was included in the PCA for the first time with a view to enable the data users to compile more realistic literacy rate as all children below 7 years of age had been treated as illiterate at the time of 1991 Census. One of the important innovations in the 1991 Census was the Community Development Block (CD Block) level presentation of Village Directory and PCA data instead of the traditional Tahsil/Taluk/PS level presentation.

4. As regards DCHB of 2001 Census, the scope of Village Directory was improved by including some other amenities like banking, recreational and cultural facilities, newspapers & magazines and 'most important commodity' manufactured in a Village in addition to prescribed facilities of earlier Censuses. In Town Directory, the statement on Slums was modified and its coverage was enlarged by including details on all slums instead of 'notified slums'.

5. The scope and coverage of Village Directory of 2011 DCHB has been widened by including a number of new amenities in addition to those of 2001. These newly added amenities are: Pre-Primary School, Engineering College, Medical College, Management Institute, Polytechnic, Non-formal Training Centre, Special School for Disabled, Community Health Centre, Veterinary Hospital, Mobile Health Clinic, Medical Practitioner with MBBS Degree, Medical Practitioner with no degree, Traditional Practitioner and faith Healer, Medicine Shop, Community Toilet, Rural Sanitary Mart or Sanitary Hardware Outlet in the Village, Community Bio- gas, Sub Post Office, Village Pin Code, Public Call Office, Mobile Phone Coverage, Internet Cafes/ Common Service Centre, Private Courier Facility, Auto/Modified Autos, Taxis and Vans, Tractors, Cycle-pulled Rickshaws, Carts driven by Animals, Village connected to National Highway, State Highway, Major District Road, and Other District Road, Availability of Water Bounded Macadam Roads in Village, ATM, Self-Help Group, Public Distribution System(PDS) Shop, Mandis/Regular Market, Weekly Haat, Agricultural Marketing Society, Nutritional Centers (ICDS), Anganwadi Centre, ASHA (Accredited Social Health Activist), Sports Field, Public Library, Public Reading Room, Assembly Polling station, Birth & Death Registration Office. In the Town Directory, seven Statements containing the details and the data of each Town have been presented viz.; (i)-Status and Growth History of Towns,(ii)- Physical Aspects and Location of Towns, (iii)-Civic and other Amenities, (iv)-Medical Facilities, (v)-Educational, Recreational & Cultural Facilities, (vi)- Industry & Banking, and (vii)- Civic & other amenities in Slums respectively. CD Block wise data of Village Directory and Village PCA have been presented in DCHB of 2011 Census as presented in earlier Census.

6. The data of DCHB 2011 Census have been presented in two parts, Part-A contains Village and Town Directory and Part-B contains Village and Town wise Primary Census Abstract. Both the Parts have been published in separate volumes in 2011 Census.

7. The Village and Town level amenities data have been collected, compiled and computerized under the supervision of Shri Deepak Ghosh, IAS., Director of Census Operation, West Bengal. The task of Planning, Designing and Co-ordination of this publication was carried out by Dr. Pratibha Kumari, Assistant Registrar General (SS) under the guidance & supervision of Dr. R.C.Sethi, Ex-Addl. RGI and Shri Deepak Rastogi present Addl.RGI. Shri A.P. Singh, Deputy Registrar General, (Map) provided the technical guidance in the preparation of maps. Shri A.K. Arora, Joint Director of Data Processing Division under the overall supervision of Shri M.S.Thapa, Addl. Director (EDP) provided full cooperation in preparation of record structure for digitization and validity checking of Village and Town Directory data and the programme for the generation of Village Directory and Town Directory including various analytical inset tables as well as Primary Census Abstract (PCA). The work of preparation of DCHB, 2011 Census has been monitored in the Social Studies Division. I am thankful to all of them and others who have contributed to bring out this publication in time.

PREFACE

The District Census Hand Book or DCHB is the most popular and widely used publication which is compiled and prepared by the Census Organization. The first ever DCHB was published in the year 1951. Thereafter Census Directorate is coming up with the publication of DCHB in every decadal Census and the present volume of DCHB of 2011 is seventh in the series.

Over the time, the contents of DCHB have been changing keeping in track with the requirement of the data user on different amenities. Since DCHB is a compilation of Census and non-Census data, the presentation is being done in two parts, viz. the Part-A and Part-B separately for each district. Part-A contains Village & Town Directory data with some important tables depicting availability of basic civic amenities such as drinking water facilities, educational facilities, post & telegraph facilities, banking facilities etc. at the C.D. Block/Village and Town level. Part-B on the other hand contains District Primary Census Abstract of Total Population including Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes at the C.D. Block/Village level and for urban units like for Statutory Towns and Census Towns, it is ward level. Part-B contains data for sex wise distribution of population, age group of 0-6 years, literate and illiterate, Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, worker and non-worker data, economic category i.e. cultivator, agricultural labour, household industry worker and other worker.

Apart from the above, DCHB also furnishes a variety of essential information pertaining to the district like brief history, the information about administrative set-up, location, climate, economic resources, land use, transport, industry, trade and commerce, place of historical, archaeological and tourists importance etc. It also provides brief analysis of Census data, presentation of the data through various tables, graphs and maps has made the publication much more attractive and valuable.

Most sincere and deepest gratitude is expressed to Dr. C. Chandramouli, IAS, Registrar General and Census Commissioner, India for his constant inspiration, support and valuable suggestions. The support and assistance of Dr. R.C. Sethi, former Additional Registrar General and Shri Deepak Rastogi, present Additional Registrar General, worth special mentioning. Our earnest gratitude to them. We are also grateful to Dr. A.P. Singh, former Deputy Registrar General (Map) for providing the technical guidance in the preparation of maps and to Dr. Pratibha Kumari, Assistant Registrar General (SS) for her overall supervision. Shri A.K. Arora, Joint Director of Data Processing Division under the overall supervision of Shri M.S. Thapa, Additional Director

(EDP) provided full co-operation in preparation of record structure for digitization and validity checking of Village and Town Directory data and the programme for the generation of Village Directory and Town Directory including various analytical inset tables as well as Primary Census Abstract (PCA). Heartfelt thanks to all the Officers of the Office of the Registrar General, India who contributed their share in befitting manner.

The sincere contributions made by the District Magistrates of all districts, Municipal Commissioners of Kolkata and Haora Municipal Corporations, District Census Officers, Additional District Census Officers (Officer In-charge, Census) and innumerable Village, C.D. HISTORY AND SCOPE OF THE DISTRICT CENSUS HANDBOOK

The need of data at the grass root level for the administrative and planning purposes at sub micro level as well as academic studies prompted the innovation of District Census Handbook. District Census Handbook is a unique publication from the Census organization which provides most authentic details of census and non-census information from village and town level to district level. The District Census Handbook was firstly introduced during the 1951 Census. It contains both census and non census data of urban as well as rural areas for each district. The census data contain several demographic and socio-economic characteristics of the lowest administrative unit i.e. of each village and town and ward of the district. The non census data comprise of data on availability of various civic amenities and infrastructural facilities etc. at the town and village level which constitute Village Directory and Town Directory part of the DCHB. The data of DCHB are of considerable importance in the context of planning and development at grass-root level.

In 1961 census DCHB provided a descriptive account of the district, administrative statistics, census tables and village and town directory including Primary Census Abstract. This pattern was changed in 1971 Census and the DCHB was published in three parts: Part-A related to village and town directory, Part-B to village and town PCA and Part-C comprised analytical report, administrative statistics, district census tables and certain analytical tables based on PCA and amenity data in respect of villages. The 1981 census DCHB was published in two parts: Part-A contained village and town directory and Part-B the PCA of village and town including the SCs and STs PCA up to tahsil/town levels. New features along with restructuring of the formats of village and town directory were added into it. In Village Directory, all amenities except electricity were brought together and if any amenity was not available in the referent village, the distance in broad ranges from the nearest place having such an amenity, was given.

The pattern of 1981 census was followed by and large for the DCHB of 1991 Census except the format of PCA. It was restructured. Nine-fold industrial classification of main workers was given against the four-fold industrial classification presented in the 1981 census. In addition, sex wise population in 0-6 age group was included in the PCA for the first time with a view to enable the data users to compile more realistic literacy rate as all children below 7 years of age had been treated as illiterate at the time of 1991 census. One of the important innovations in the 1991 census was the Community Development Block (CD Block) level presentation of village directory and PCA data instead of the traditional tahsil/taluk/PS level presentation.

As regards DCHB of 2001 Census, the scope of Village Directory was improved by including some other amenities like banking, recreational and cultural facilities, newspapers & magazines and 'most important commodity' manufactured in a village in addition to prescribed facilities of earlier censuses. In Town Directory, the statement on Slums was modified and its coverage was enlarged by including details on all slums instead of 'notified slums'.

The scope and coverage of Village Directory of 2011 DCHB has been widened by including a number of new amenities in addition to those of 2001. In the Town Directory, seven Statements containing the details and the data of each town have been presented viz.; (i)-Status and Growth History of towns,(ii)- Physical Aspects and Location of Towns, (iii)-Civic and other Amenities, (iv)-Medical Facilities, (v)-Educational, Recreational & Cultural Facilities, (vi)- Industry & Banking, and (vii)- Civic & other amenities in Slums respectively. CD Block wise data of Village Directory and Village PCA have been presented in DCHB of 2011 census as presented in earlier census. The data of DCHB 2011 Census have been presented in two parts, Part-A contains Village and Town Directory and Part-B contains Village and Town wise Primary Census Abstract. Both the Parts have been published in separate volumes in 2011 Census.

Brief history of the district

Like many other places of West Bengal, we do not have any specific document regarding the naming of the district Hugli (written as 'Hooghly' also). There is a belief that the name Hugli is derived probably from the word 'hogla' which denotes a tall reed that grows in abundance on the river banks and in the marshy low lands below them. There is another strong belief that the name is connected to the Portuguese. By the end of the 16th century, Hugli (the Portuguese called it Port Pequeno) replaced Satgaon as the most important port for western Bengal and in course of time the district came to be named after this thriving port-city which was then the centre point of European trade in eastern India. It is commonly believed that the Portuguese settled at Hugli about or immediately after 1575 with the permission of the great Mughal Emperor Akbar. At that time Hugli was a petty village with only a number of straw huts and bamboo stockades in which the visiting Portuguese ships used to sell their cargo of salt from 'Hijli' and which they used to evacuate when the sell was over. A storehouse of salt (or any other commodity) is called in Bengali gola, and this word in the mouth of the Portuguese became O-Golim ('O' is the definitive article in the Portuguese language and a nasal suffix is added to most Indian place-names by these people). The Bengalis turned O-golim into Hugli.

According to L.S.S. O' Malley this part of the country was probably included in the territory held by the Suhmas, a tribe mentioned in juxtaposition with the Angas, Vangas and Pundras in the Mahabharata and also in the Mahabhashya, a grammar dating back to the second century B.C.

During the third century B.C. the territory of the Suhmas which was included in the vast empire of Asoka, extended over the whole of Bengal as far as the mouth of the Ganges and up to Tamralipti (the modern Tamluk). After several centuries, this tract merged with rest of Bengal during the Gupta Empire, the credit goes to Empire Samudragupta in the fourth century.

At the beginning of the seventh century this part of Bengal was conquered by Sasanka, the king of Bengal. In the later half of the same century, it became part of Emperor Siladitya Harshabardhan however the northern and eastern part of the district passed into the hands of the Sena kingdom of Bengal.

Hugli was the centre of trade right from the beginning and foreign invaders like the Portuguese, the Dutch, the French, the Danes, the English came to this district for business purpose and established "Kuthis". The district became the "window" to these settlers. Chandernagore was under the French since 1696 till 1950. Chinsurah and Serampur were under the Dutch and Danes respectively for a long period.

After the British got control of Bengal after the battle of Plassy, an agreement was signed between Mir Kashim and the British by which in 1760 the zamindari of Burdwan, Midnapur and Chittagang was donated to the British. The British introduced their own rule to administer those areas according to their system.

In the year 1795, Burdwan district was divided into two parts for administrative purpose. The northern part became to be known as Burdwan and the southern part became to be known as Hugli. The Bengal Presidency at that time was divided into 14 districts of which Hugli was one.

In the year 1822, Hugli became a separate Collectorate. The present Collectorate Building was constructed between 1827 and 1829 to accommodate the British troops.

The present Hugli district probably came into existence in 1795 through many administrative changes. The administrative system of Hugli got its true shape during the British rule though the system was not transparent. The district had its own judiciary system, but the revenue matters over this area were in the hands of the Collector of Bardhaman. The police stations the districts comprised prove that Chandrakona and Ghatal of present Medinipur district and Bagan (Bagnan?) and Ampta (Amta) of present Haora district were included in the district of Hugli of that period. The Baidyabati and Chinsurah police stations came to be added to the district later. In the words of S.C. Dey, "Chinsurah was taken possession of by the English on the 28th July, 1795 and they did not restore it to the Dutch until the 27th September, 1817. It was finally ceded to them in 1824 Chandernagore was captured for the second time by the English in 1794, and it continued in their hands till 1815 when it was given up Serampore was taken by the English in 1808 and it was not restored to the Danes until the Waterloo year. It was finally ceded to the English in 1845".

In February, 1843, the magisterial charge of Haora was separately created. Since then minor several changes have taken place till 1966. Due to invention of so many foreign powers, the district has witnessed several foreign administration and policies in one form or the other. Interestingly all these foreign powers at first invaded the district for business purpose but gradually the traders became the rulers, sometimes directly sometimes indirectly by controlling the districts economy. It appears that the district was first visited by the Portuguese when Rabello arrived at the port of Satgaon in 1535 with a demand of the King of Gour to release the Portuguese prisoners. By the end of the 16th century the Bay swarm with the galleys of the Portuguese. Satgaon on the river Hugli was their port, the Porto Piqueno or the little haven. The large ships from Portugal came upto Bator or modern Haora whereas the smaller ships went to Satgaon. It is said that yearly 30 or 35 ships used to anchor here every year. From here the goods went to local temporary market referred as hats. The trade encouraged the Portuguese to make a settlement at Hugli probably between 1575 and 1580. By 1588, Hugli was the sole possession of the Portuguese. In 1599 the number and influence of the Christians were attested by the erection of Bandel Church. By this time the Portuguese in Bengal had degenerated into a race of pirates and slave dealers, and lived 'like wild men and untamed horses'. By this time they use to seize and carry off peaceful cultivators, harassed travellers and trader. They incurred Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan's displeasure who charged his government to extirpate the Portuguese colony. His orders were promptly obeyed. The attack was made from the river and land and the town was captured in October, 1631, or, according to some, in 1632, the siege having lasted three months and a half. About 4,000 prisoners were taken to Agra and the Bandel Church was destroyed. But the Portuguese returned in the Emperor's favour and returned to Hugli in 1633 with a grant of 777 bighas of rent-free land to Bandel Church which was rebuilt in 1660. But the Portuguese power was reduced gradually by the up-growing British power later on.

The Dutch were the next European nation to settle in Bengal. Early records suggests that the Dutch ships arrived in the year 1615 and after receiving a regular farman (sanction order) from Mughal Emperor Shah Jagan they first had their chief factory sometime before 1650. The first Dutch factory was swept away by floods leading them to build a new factory lower down at Chinsura probably in the year 1655. During the reign of Aurangzeb the Dutch trade in Bengal was regulated by a farman granted by that Emperor in 1662. Other notable Dutch factories besides Fort Gustavus at Chinsura and a silk factory at Kashimbazar are a factory for salting pork at Baranagar and a station at Falta for seagoing ships. Initially the Dutch never intervened in any political decisions of Bengal except those that comes in way of their interest. During the rebellion of Subha Singh in 1695, the Dutch drove out the rebel army from Hugli by firing broadsides from two of their ships. In 1712 they tried to mediate between Ziauddin, the late faujdar of Hugli and his successor. In the same year the Emperor granted a fresh farman to the Dutch East India Company. When Nawab Sirajuddaula and the British confronted, the Dutch remained neutral. However later in 1759, the Dutch became anxious to share in the wealth acquired by the English in Bengal and their intrigues were readily supported by the new Nawab Zafar Khan who was also alarmed by the growing power of the English and wished to counterbalance it by that of the Dutch. In August 1759, seven Dutch vessels full of troops anchored in Bengal and they seized the English trading vessels and burnt the English factories. Later on 20th November the English seized the Dutch factory at Baranagar and crossed the Hugli to Chandernagore. On the 24th the English took all their ships in the estuary and on the same day they drove back the Dutch army in rout at Chandernagore and the next day in another engagement at Bedarraah they utterly defeated the Dutch. Afterwards when Chinsura was invested, the Dutch sued for peace. A convention was signed at Ghiretti, by which the Dutch engaged to pay an indemnity and the English agreed to restore their ships, stores and prisoners. An agreement was next concluded between the Dutch and the Nawab which divested the former of all possibility of building up military power and the dream of a Dutch Empire in India. Their trade naturally enough declined with the loss of their power. In 1781, on the outbreak of war with Holland, Chinsura was taken by the British. By 1827 the Dutch of Chinsura had fallen on evil days, and they disappeared shortly after.

The British was probably the strongest invaders to India. The first Englishman to visit Bengal was Ralph Fitch, who came to Hugli about 1588. In December 1600, the East India Company was incorporated by royal charter though their attempts to secure trade concessions from the Delhi sultanate failed in 1617, 1620, 1621 and 1632. Later in the year 1650, the British established a factory and in December James Bridgeman with three assistants was dispatched to make a settlement at Hugli. By the year 1657, the Hugli factory became the head agency in Bengal with subordinate agencies at Balasore, Kashimbazar and Patna though in the later year the factory was made subordinate to Madras as the agency suffered humiliation in the hand of the Mughal Governor of Bengal in 1661 and 1662. In the year 1668, the Bengal Pilot Service was inaugurated as the British began to undertake the pilotage of the river. In the year 1679 the Bengal Factories was recognized and the trading came under the general control of the Chief and a Council of Four at Hugli. In 1681 the factories in Bengal were again made independent of Madras and William Hedges was appointed Agent and Governor of the factories in the Bay of Bengal. He was dismissed in 1683 for managing affairs badly. In 1685 Job Charnock became Agent and had to face a critical situation. The interlopers, a fraternity of adventurous traders under the title of the New English Company, were mischievously active and the Nawab thwarted trade and molested the Company's men. When Charnock took over charge, he found the Court of Directors resolved on war and on 28 October 1686 there was a regular engagement with the Mughal faujdar. There was an armistice but Charnock finding Hugli a difficult place to maintain, gave it up altogether and dropped down the river to Sutanuti. In January 1687 Charnock again entered into negotiations with the Nawab, but the latter refused his demands. In 1699 a new Company was formed, duly constituted under the name of "The English Company Trading to the East Indies", and its President and Agent made his headquarters at Hugli. The two companies continued their quarrels for several years but were amalgamated in April 1702, when orders were sent to the President to withdraw the out-factories, quit Hugli and retire to Calcutta. This was done some time in 1704. Though Calcutta became the new head quarters the English kept up their connections with Hugli so long as it continued to be the seat of the faujdar. There were frequent tiffs between the faujdar and the English and during the last days of Muhammadan rule Hugli again figured prominently. When Nawab Sirajuddaula was marching against Calcutta in 1756, the English sent a party of 15 men to Sukhsagar to reconnoitre. This gave rise to a rumour that the English were on their way to attack Hugli and the Nawab sent a large force to hold the town. On the 9th January 1757 the English took Hugli and proceeded to secure possession of the neighbourhood. The work of destruction of enemy arms and provisions in Bandel and Shahganj was completed with thoroughness and the English moved north. Chandernagore was captured on 23 March 1757.

Though the Danish India Company was formed in 1612, they came to the district by the end of the century. They set up a factory at Gondalpara, southeast of Chandernagore. This locality is still known as Dinemardanga, the land of the Danes. By 1714 they abandoned their factories only to re-establish them in 1755 having secured from Ali Verdi Khan, at a considerable cost, the grant of a settlement at Serampur. The Danes were allowed to settle and trade there but they were not permitted to keep up a garrison. When Nawab Sirajuddaula demanded military help from them on his way to Calcutta, the Danes failed which led the Nawab to impose a huge fine from them. Later the English took over Chandernagore and drove the French away who took sanctuary in Serampur. Gradually the Danish trader declined but it was soon revived because the Danes handled a large volume of English trade owing to the anxiety of the English to escape the enemies' privateers and men-of-war as England was at war with the United States, France and Holland. These were the golden days of Serampur and these too were the days in which the town became famous in the Christian world as the headquarters of the Baptist Missionaries, for in 1799, Marshman, Ward and two other missionaries came to Serampur where they were soon joined by Carey. In 1801 England was at war with Denmark and Serampur was seized by the English to be restored next year at the Peace of Amiens. In 1808 there was war again and the British took Serampur. Serampur was then administered by the Judge-Magistrate of Hugli until 1815 when it was restored to the Danes at the Piece of Kiel. Though the Danes recovered the town, they did not recover their trade. A shoal had formed in front of the town and their goods were ousted by British competition. Between 1815 and 1845 only one vessel visited the port, while in 1813-14 the total revenue was only Rs. 13,231. Bishop Heber who visited the town in 1823 deplored its decadence. At that time its attractions were its cheapness of living and the asylum it gave to debtors. In 1830 the right to shelter debtors was given up by the Danes and eventually, by a treaty concluded on 22 February 1845, the King of Denmark transferred Serampur with Tranquebar to the British for one and a quarter million rupees.

The earliest record of French settlement in Bengal is found in the English factory records which suggest that the French first settled in Hugli in the year 1674. By virtue of a farman from the Mughal Emperor Aurangzev, the French erected a factory in 1688 at Chandernagore. In 1701 Chandernagore were placed under the Governor of Pondicherry's authority. Thereafter the French trade languished and continued till 1741. A series of incidents combined the declination of French trade in Bengal and even their factory got into large debts. Though the French succeeded in avoiding war with the Nawab in 1756, they fail to repeat the same in March 1757 when Robert Clive of the British East India Company invaded Chandernagore and captured the town. In the year 1765 Chandernagore was restored by the Treaty of Paris. Resulting to a trouble with the Nawab, the French trade was put on a virtual stop in the year 1768. Taking advantages of the war that broke up in Europe in 1778, the English re-occupied Chandernagore again but withdrew on the conclusion of peace in 1783. During the French Revolution the citizens of Chandernagore shared in the republican fervour of their countrymen the Governor fled to his country house at Ghiretti but was brought back to the town by an excited mob, which wished to copy the Parisians' march to Versailles. Again in June 1793 Chandernagore was re-occupied by the British. It was restored in 1802 only to be seized again a few month later, on the resumption of hostilities. The Judge-Magistrate of Hugli was then the administrator and finally in 1816, Chandernagore was handed over to the French. While under the British Government, Chandernagore, as well as Chinsura and Serampur, is said to have swarmed with receivers of stolen goods, cheats, swindlers and fraudulent pawnbrokers. In 1823 the place presented to Bishop Heber a 'remarkable picture of solitude and desolation'.

The district of Hugli was also invaded by the Prussians through the Bengal Company of Embden founded in 1753 by Frederick the Great. Almost at a distance of a mile from Chandernagore their factory was erected with a garden attached to it known as the Prussian Gardens. In the year 1756, the Prussian faced a disaster when Nawab Sirajuddaula extorted Rs. 5,000/- from them and in August their only ship was wrecked. With this blow and growing trading rivalry with other European companies, the Royal Prussian Bengal Company was forced to wound up in 1760 with the English taking over.

The Flemish also tried a bit of trade in the district. In the year 1722, the Ostend Company was formed and a year later it founded and lost a settlement on the Hugli. The Nawab captured their factory in 1723 and suspended the company's charter in 1727 and was suppressed in 1731. But the Flemish did not give up all hope, for isolated factories are mentioned as being in existence at Bankibazar as late as 1744. Ali Verdi Khan finally, either in 1744 or 1748, attacked or drove the factors of the Ostend Company out of the river of Hugli.

In concluding this sketch of the early Europe in settlements mention may be made of the native names given to them and to the nations which held them. The Portuguese were called Firingis (from Frank), their quarters Firingi-tola and they lend their name to syphilis which in vernacular was called Feranga-roga. The Dutch were called Olandaz from Hollandois, the French Farashi and their settlement Farasdanga from Francais; the English Angrez or Ingrez from Anglais or English, and the Danes Dinemar and their settlement DinemarDanga from Denmark.

The influence of so many foreign powers that came into Hugli district, one way or the other, have great impact upon various areas of the district as well as upon the habits and cultures of the people. Let us now discuss in brief the impact and other related matters in different towns of the district.

Arambag :Arambag (also spelt Arambagh) is the largest Sub-division of the district was formed in 1879. The city, also bearing the same name is the head quarters of the Sub-division.

Arambagh was earlier known as Jahanabad and was the headquarters of Jahanabad Sub-division. On 19th April, 1900 the name of Jahanabad was changed to Arambagh, which means "the garden of ease and comfort". Famous Bengali writer Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay was the first Sub-divisional Officer of Arambagh. Noted persons like Shri Ramkrishna Parmahnsadev (noted religious preacher), Raja Rammohan Roy (social reformer), Shri Prasanna Kumar Sarbadhikary (author of first Bengali arithmetic book and member of the syndicate of Calcutta University), Shri Debaprasad Sarbadhikary (Vice-Chancellor, Calcutta University), Shri Bhupendranath Bose (Vice-Chancellor, Calcutta University), Shri Nandalal Maity (noted writer of several volumes of History of Mathematics in Bengali), Shri Prafulla Chandra Sen (former Chief Minister of West Bengal), Shri Balai Krishna Roy (Founder, Arambagh Hatcheries), Shri Sumanta Chattopadhyay (famous actor, winner of Dada Saheb Phalke award) and many others was the son of the soil of Arambagh.

Arambagh Hatcheries Limited is a multi-dimensional food based company, incorporated in the year 1973 with primary interest in chicken and chicken related products. Initiating from Arambagh, business activities of the company has not only been concentrated in the State of West Bengal, but also in the states like Bihar, Jharkhand, Assam, Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka. With the passage of time Arambagh's Chicken has got a brand name and value which has now reached abroad also.

Bandel : Founded by the Portuguese settlers, this city is an urban area in Chinsurah-Mogra C.D. Block in Chinsurah Sub-division. It is under Chinsurah Police Station and is a part of Kolkata Metropolitan Area. Bandel is also known as a major railway junction station of Eastern Railway and is about 40 km. from Howrah railway station. The place is famous for Bandel Church. The Church and the Monastery were built around 1660 by the Portuguese. It is one of the oldest Christian churches of West Bengal and it is dedicated to Nossa Senhora do Rosário, also known as "Nossa Senhora da Boa Viagem", meaning "Our Lady of the Good Journey". The keystone of an older church with the year 1599 on it, adorns the riverside gate of the monastery attached to it.

Chandannagar : Probably the most historic town of the district, the city of Chandannagar, a former French colony is located about 30 km. (19 miles) north of Kolkata. The city was formerly known as Chandernagore (Chôndonnôgor, in French Chandernagor) and it is one of the 6 municipal corporations of West Bengal. It is a part of the area covered by Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority. Located besides the Hugli River, the city has been able to maintain a separate identity different from all other cities and abide by her own characteristics. The total area is 19 sq. km. (7.3 sq. mile), and had a population of 166,867 as per 2011 Census. The name Chandannagore is possibly derived from the shape of the bank of the river Ganges which is bent like a half moon (in Bengali, Chand means moon and Nagar implies city). In some old documents the spelling of Chandannagar was Chandernagore which probably came from Chandra Nagar (Chandra also means moon in Bengali). Other is of the belief that it might have been taken from the flourishing trade and business of chandani (sandal) wood at that time. One more reason behind the name is, in Chandernagore there is a temple of Goddess 'Chandi'. So the name might come from there also. But earlier people knew the place by the name Farasdanga as it was a French colony (in Bengali Farasi means French, danga means land). The city was established as a French colony in 1673, when the French obtained permission from Ibrahim Khan, the Nawab of Bengal, to establish a trading post on the right bank of the Hugli River. Bengal was then a province of the Mughal Empire. It became a permanent French settlement in 1688 and in 1730 Joseph François Dupleix was appointed Governor of the city during whose administration more than two thousand brick houses were erected in the town and a considerable maritime trade was carried on. For a time, Chandannagar was the main centre for European commerce in Bengal. In 1756, when war broke out between France and Great Britain, Colonel Robert Clive of the British East India Company and Admiral Charles Watson of the British Navy bombarded and captured Chandannagar on 23rd March, 1757. The town's fortifications and many houses were demolished thereafter and Chandannagar's importance as a commercial center was eclipsed by that of Calcutta just downriver. Chandernagore was restored to the French in 1763, but retaken by the British in 1794. The city was returned to France in 1816, along with a 3 sq. miles (7.8 km²) enclave of surrounding territory. It was governed as part of French India until 1950, under the political control of the Governor-General in Pondicherry. By 1900 the town's former commercial importance was gone and it was reduced to little more than a quiet suburb of Calcutta, with a population of 25,000 (1901 Census). The European town was noted for its clean wide thoroughfares with many elegant residences along the riverbank. After India's Independence (1947), in June 1948 the French Government held a plebiscite which found that 97% of Chandannagar's residents wished to become part of India. In May 1950, the French allowed the Indian Government to assume de-facto control over Chandannagar, officially ceding the city to India on 2nd February, 1951. De-jure transfer took place on 9th June, 1952. On 2nd October, 1955 Chandannagar was integrated into the state of West Bengal.

Chinsurah : Situated in the bank of Hugli river, Chinsurah (in Bengali pronunciation Chuchura) is about 35 km. north of Kolkata and is the District Head Quarter. Chuchura houses the Commissioner of the Burdwan Range. It forms a part of the Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority (KMDA) region. The District Court building of Chinsurah is the longest building in West Bengal. The Portuguese founded the town of Hooghly-Chuchura in 1579, but the district has thousands of years of heritage in the form of the great kingdom of Bhurshut. The city flourished as a trading port and some religious structures were built. One such structure is a church dedicated to a charismatic statue of the Mother Mary brought by the Portuguese.

During the 17th century when political disorder struck the city, the Mughal Governor of Bengal expelled the Portuguese. The fleeing Portuguese lost the statue of the Mother Mary in the river but local people later found it on the river bank. The arrested Portuguese were taken to Delhi where a death sentence of trampling by elephants was decreed. Emperor Shah Jahan, hearing the death sentence, reverted the order. A fresh order was issued by which the priests were released and granted a piece of land on the bank of the river Hugli where the statue of the Mother Mary was re-established. A church was constructed to house the statue, which still receives pilgrims today. The church was renovated in 1980s and has been declared as a Basilica by the Authority of Rome.

In 1656 the Dutch erected a factory on the site of the town. At that time Calcutta was the principal settlement in Dutch Bengal, who used it as a base for the Dutch intra-Asian opium trade. In 1759 the garrison of Chinsura on its march to Chandernagore attacked a British force under Colonel Forde. The Battle of Chinsurah lasted less than half an hour and ended with the rout of the Dutch attackers. In 1795, during the Napoleonic wars, a British garrison occupied the settlement. The peace of 1814 restored Hugli to the Dutch. However, in 1825, the Dutch ceded many of their possessions in India to the British, in exchange for the British possessions in Sumatra.

Both Chinsurah and Hugli played an important role in the Bengal renaissance and the Indian Independence movement. "VandeMataram", India's national song, was composed by Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay at Joraghat in Chinsurah, who was also an alumnus of the Hooghly Collegiate School. Nazrul Islam's revolutionary songs were penned while he was imprisoned by the British in Hugli Jail.

Guptipara : A rural town under Balagarh police station in Chinsurah Sub-division, Guptipara has a rich cultural heritage. In the book 'Rajtarangini' by Kalhan, in 'Manasa Mongol kabya' of Bipradas Pipilai, in 'Surodhani Kabya' of Shri Denobondhu Mitra, in the famous 'Pather Panchali' of Shri Bibhutibhusan Babdhopadaya, we get references of Guptipara. Guptipara is famous for kabiya/Bhola Mayera. Guptipara derived its name from the famous Baidya Community of that locality (surnames of Baidyas end with Gupta). Guptipara have boasted of many renowned Ayurvedic (nature cure) Doctors within Baidya community. Many famous ayurvedic books were written by doctors of Baidya community. The Raath Yatra (Chariot Festival of Jagannath Dev), the Durga Puja of the area is Bengal famous. Guptipara is also known for its famous terracotta temples.

Hooghly Mohsin College : Though not a town as those described above, still this glorious house of learning should get a special mention that nurtured some of the doyens of nineteenth century Indian Renaissance. Since its historic inception as the first seat of English Education in India in 1836 to date, this college has been nurturing talents who have always done our country proud. Eminent Bengali writer Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, the composer of "VandeMataram" was a student of this institution. He was also the first Sub-divisional Officer of Arambagh Sub-division of the district. Rai Bahadur Sarada Prasanna Das, I.E.S, eminent professor of mathematics, was the principal in the earlier 19th century of this college. Bengali writers, such as Shri Dwijendralal Roy, Shri Sanjib Chandra Chattopadhyay, Shri Rangalal Bandyopadhyay was also alumni of this college. Several students and teachers associated with this college dedicated their lives to the cause of Indian Freedom Movement. Some of them being S/Shri Biplabacharya Jyotish Chandra Ghosh, Muzaffar Ahmed, Kanailal Dutta, Pramathanath Mitra, Brahmabandhav Upadhyay, Debendranath Mondal, Bhupati Mujumder, Charu Chandra Roy and Mrityunjay Sil. A versatile genius, the Indian Muslim Judge and Jurist, wise leader, writer and historian Syed Amir Ali, famous scientists such as Dr. Upendranath Brahmachari, Sahairam Basu and J.N. Bhar, noted singers like Shyamal Mitra and Satinath Mukhopadhyay were students of this college.

India has seen the formation of urban local bodies since the time of Indus Valley Civilization. The first Municipal Corporation was set up at erstwhile Madras (now Chennai) under a charter granted by James-II during the British rule in 1687. There are different types of urban local bodies, namely, Municipal Corporations, Municipal Councils, Municipalities, Notified Area Committees, Cantonment Boards etc. Except the Cantonment Boards all other types of municipal bodies are governed by the state municipal laws. Cantonment Boards are controlled by the Central Act called Cantonment Acts, 1924. A municipality is constituted with elected members of the inhabitants of a city or town and municipal corporations, and is created by the enactment of State Legislatures or of Parliament in case of Union Territories. The area which does not fulfil all the conditions laid down as necessary for the constitution of a municipality or it may also be created for newly developing towns or areas are known as Notified Area Committee. Except Notified Area, the councils of all these corporate bodies comprise of elected members of the public through adult franchise (citizen of 18 years and above) based on secret ballot. The notified area is governed by the state governments through a body nominated by it. Apart from overall planning, creation and maintenance of Civil Administration, the primary object of every urban local body is to provide certain civic amenities to the people.

As already stated there are 1 Municipal Corporation namely Chandannagar (M. Corp.) and 12 municipalities. Among them Hugli-Chinsurah and Serampur municipalities are the oldest, established on 1865. On 1st April, 1869 three municipalities were created namely Bansberia, Bhadreswar and Baidyabati. After 17 years in 1886, Arambag Municipality was created. Before India's Independence Champadani Municipality was established on 1st October 1917 and on 16th January 1944 Konnagar and Rishra municipalities were established. Primary Census Abstract (PCA)

Brief Note on Primary Census Abstract

Introduction:

The Indian Census has the reputation of being one of the best in the world. The first Census in India was conducted in the year 1872. This was conducted at different points of time in different parts of the country. In 1881 a Census was taken for the entire country simultaneously. Since then, Census has been conducted every ten years, without a break. Thus, the Census of India 2011 was the fifteenth in this unbroken series since 1872, the seventh after independence and the second census of the third millennium and twenty first century. The census has been uninterruptedly continued despite of several adversities like wars, epidemics, natural calamities, political unrest, etc.

The Census of India is conducted under the provisions of the Census Act 1948 and the Census Rules, 1990. In Censuses until 1931, a synchronous de-facto method was adopted wherein the Census was conducted throughout the country on a single night. This being a very costly affair and involved the deployment of very large force at one point of time was given up in 1941. Since then the same methodology has been followed in all the Censuses. It is a gigantic operation and considered to be the single largest, complex, peace time administrative exercise in the world.

The Census Operation in India is carried out in two distinct but inter connected phases - the House listing and Housing Census followed by the Population Enumeration. During the first phase of Census 2011 i.e., House listing and Housing Census, the buildings, census houses and households were identified and systematically listed in the House Listing and Housing Census Schedule during the period April to September, 2010 in different States/Union Territories. Apart from listing of houses, some useful data on the amenities available to the households was also collected for assessing condition of human settlements, housing deficits etc.

Censuses prior to Census 2001 had the system of collecting the information through Individual Slip which was a key schedule for every individual. The information collected through slip was then compiled for a household. Some information was also collected in addition to this for the household. During 2001 Census a comprehensive Household Schedule was adopted replacing the individual slip concept. In 2011 Census also similar household schedule was used for canvassing. The scope of demographic, socio-economic parameters has been widened in every census.

2. Population Enumeration - Census 2011:

The field work of the second phase i.e. Population Enumeration was carried out during February-March, 2011. One of the essential features of Population Enumeration in the second phase was that each person was enumerated and her/his individual particulars were collected at a well-defined point of time.

The Census moment and the reference date for the Census of India 2011 was 00:00 hours of 1st March, 2011. The enumeration was conducted from 9th February to 28th February, 2011 along with a revisional round from 1st March, 2011 to 5th March, 2011 synchronously all over the country except for few specific areas of the Jammu & Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand states that remain snowbound in February. In these locations the population enumeration was done from 11th September, 2010 to 30th September, 2010 along with a revisional round from 1st October, 2010 to 5th October, 2010. The reference date for the census in snow bound non-synchronous areas of these states was 00.00 hours of the first day of October, 2010. In addition to the coverage during House listing & Housing Census, the enumeration of the Houseless population was carried out on the night of 28th February, 2011, as has been the usual practice. For the purpose of Census, certain areas where the access of the civilian enumerators was not permissible due to security reasons termed as 'Special Charges' such as the Defence and strictly Military/Para-Military areas, including operational areas were also covered. Such areas were not covered during the House listing & Housing Census. In addition to the defence/para-military areas, Special Charges also included certain factory areas, certain colonies, sensitive areas, scientific establishments, etc. These also formed Special Charges as these were not accessible by the usual census enumerator.

3. Quality Assurance:

A Task Force for Quality Assurance (TFQA) functioned under the chairmanship of the RG & CCI. Experienced officers of the different divisions of the organization i.e. Heads and senior officers of the Census Division, Data Processing Division, Map Division, Demography Division and Social Studies Division comprised the TFQA. The Directors of Census Operations were co-opted as members whenever the TFQA discussed the data for their States/Union territories. The main objective of constituting the TFQA was to subject the data to stringent validation checks and ensure its quality before release as it was expedient to be satisfied itself about the quality of data before putting the same in public domain.

The Directors and their senior officers were involved at all levels with respect to the quality and the coverage of their states/Uts. The TFQA intensively scrutinized coverage and content parameters including edit and imputation logic. The most important aspect of the data quality was to ensure complete coverage of all geographical areas especially for the population enumeration phase where the data is disseminated right up to the village level in the rural areas and the ward level in the urban areas. Thus ensuring the complete coverage and correct geographical linkage of each enumeration block was one of the major planks of the quality control, especially for small area population statistics. The content was scrutinized mainly through the process of internal consistency, comparison with similar data in the past and also through validation with likewise data if available, from external sources. Quite often the local knowledge and perception was looked at to understand both the existing and the new emerging trends of population distribution and characteristics. A very comprehensive check and edit mechanism was put in place to objectively examine the preliminary Census 2011 Population Enumeration results and finally clear them for use. The population data was cleared only after the full possible satisfaction of the TFQA.

The entire work relating to the data validation and scrutiny was completed by all the States/Union territories under the overall supervision and monitoring of the Census Division of the Office of the Registrar General, India with active cooperation and support of the Social Studies Division, Data Processing Division, Data Dissemination Division and Map Division.

4. Primary Census Abstract:

The Primary Census Abstract which is important publication of 2011 Census gives basic information on Area, Total Number of Households, Total Population, Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes Population, Population in the age group 0-6, Literates, Main Workers and Marginal Workers classified by the four broad industrial categories, namely, (i) Cultivators, (ii) Agricultural Labourers, (iii) Household Industry Workers, and (iv) Other Workers and also Non-Workers. The characteristics of the Total Population include Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Institutional and Houseless Population and are presented by sex and rural-urban residence.

In 1981 census main workers were presented into four categories. As regards 1991 Census, the nine-fold industrial classification of main workers has been given in the Primary Census Abstract. One of the important features of the Primary Census Abstract of 1991 Census was the presentation of population of the age group 0-6 which is continued in 2001 and 2011 Census. All the children of age 6 years or less have been treated as illiterate even if the child is going to a school and may have picked up reading and writing. This will help the data users in better analysis and understanding of the literacy data as the literacy rate is calculated with 7 years and above population and it is referred as effective literacy rate. In 2001 and 2011 census four categories of main workers have been given in the Primary Census Abstract.

5. Level of Presentation of PCA data in District Census Handbooks:

The format of Primary Census Abstract (PCA) adopted in the DCHB of 2001 Census has been continued for 2011 Census as the data on four categories of works have been presented similar to 2001 census. The Primary Census Abstract data in different PCAs are presented at different levels. The level of presentation of Primary Census Abstracts in DCHB is as under:

1. District Primary Census Abstract -District/C.D. Block/Town.
2. Primary Census Abstract for Scheduled Castes- District/C.D. Block/Town.
3. Primary Census Abstract for Scheduled Tribes -District/C.D. Block/Town.
4. Village Primary Census Abstract -C.D. Block/Village wise.
5. Urban Primary Census Abstract- Town/Ward level.

The PCA Data for villages was presented C.D. Block wise for the first time in 1991 Census. This practice is continued in 2001 and 2011 Census. The term 'Total Population' includes the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, the Institutional and the Houseless populations. An appendix to District Primary Census Abstract has also been furnished showing urban enumeration block-wise particulars on Total Population, the Scheduled Castes Population and the Scheduled Tribes Population for each town.

6. Area Figures:

The area figures supplied by local revenue authorities of the district in respect of tahsils, Police Stations and by the local bodies in respect of towns are given in square kilometers. The area figures of the villages supplied by the Tahsildars in acres have been converted and shown in hectares. The area figures of the C.D. Block are the total of the village areas coming under each C.D. Block. The area figures for the district are the same as adopted by the Surveyor General of India to maintain uniformity at the national level.
